

STELLA MARIS CATHOLIC SCHOOL

POLICY: Private Tutors Policy

Purpose:

Private tutoring programmes during school hours will meet the following criteria

- They will enrich the content of the school's educational programme.
- They will address particular needs of students in areas that are not provided by the school.
- They will not replace regular school educational programmes.

Procedures:

1. The qualifications of the tutor will be verified, and the suitability of the programme established.
2. The tutors will undergo Police vetting.
3. The tutors will be provided with clear instructions as to the level of care required for the student/s.
4. Tutors must enter into a written agreement with a student's parents or care givers before tuition commences.
