Stella Maris Level 3 Lockdown Feb 14th 11.59pm

From 11.59pm Sunday 14th February the Auckland region moves to Covid 19 alert level 3, initially for a period of 3 days until 17th February at 11.59pm.

Only the children of essential workers are able to attend school during level 3 lockdown.

If you are an essential worker and you require your child/ren to be at school please email Olwyn Hobman E: olwyn@stellamaris.school.nz and Catherine Cyprian E: principal@stellamaris.school.nz immediately, stating the days that your child/ren will be at school. Essential workers children who are attending can be dropped off after 8am and must be picked up by 2.45pm.

There is NO skids operating during this lockdown level.

Children attending school need to come with their own drink bottle of water, lunch boxes as per normal. Bring their devices, if they have one available. Uniform is required to be worn.

Could all families please email your child/ren's teachers so that online learning can be communicated with you. Email address are below.

Huruhuru Team Year 5 / 6 Students

Huruhuru team please go to the Huruhuru website link for learning activities that you can choose from for the next 3 days. If the current lockdown goes for more than 3 days we will notify parents about how we will proceed. Please note: St Dominic students and parents, if you have any questions or need help over the next 3 days you will need to email Mrs Law, E: tracey@stellamaris.school.nz, as Ms Kain will be teaching the children of essential workers at school for this lockdown.
